Dear Mr. Weisberg:

A couple of weeks ago I wrote you re your Night Talk WCAU appearance and asked where I could get WHITEWASH - which you sent me . . . along with a note saying you hoped it would live up to my expectations.

It did! I found every page to be a fascinating eye-opener, even tho I'd already read everything available. How, in the light of your long list of questions at the end of the text, the world can sit on its hands and not demand a REAL investigation, I just don't know.

A few days ago I saw you on CBS-TV news, researching again . . . and understood you to say you had enough facts at hand for another book. I do hope this is true . . . and if so, could you give me any idea when it will be available?

Good luck, Mr. Weisberg . . . you have an enthusiastic audience!

Sincerely,

Anne Bradford
